

USEFUL RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Fill in your own data in advance, on one side of the finding form (sections 6, 7 and 8). It will be of useful help after the accident.
2. Write in legibly and concisely (avoid overloading and erasures).
3. Try to reach an agreement with the other party and sign the finding form together.
4. In case of divergences write down all the damages of the other driver and fill in the form in the section you are entitled to. If necessary call the Police!
5. In case of an accident that results into injuries, always call the Police.

6. Shall you agree with the other driver's point of view, write it down in section 14 (Comments) in the form.
7. Shall there be any witnesses of the accident, write down their complete names and addresses; otherwise this piece of information could be doubtful.
8. The information you do not write down immediately, may later on be denied, contradicted or questioned.
9. Carefully verify all information provided by the other driver, especially the vehicles plate number and the insurance policy.
